Heien Potter Warner of No. 405 West One Hundred and Thirtieth Street will not be tried in open court. The divorce suit brought by Mrs. Warner, in which she named an unknown woman, will be tried in secret by Phoenix Ingham, son of the Presiding Justice of the Appellate Division, who was today appointed referee by Supreme Court Justice Gleason.

Both sides today informed the referee they were ready to proceed with the trial. The sessions were scheduled to begin today in Mr. Ingham's office in the Equitable Building. Warner, in his answer to the suit, accuses his wife of collusion, declaring he agreed to give Mrs. Warner evidence to follow him to a hotel at Seventh Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street.

WON A SERBIAN BRIDE
WHILE FIGHTING TYPHUS

Dr. Berger Back Home With Wife, Who Was Nurse With King Peter's Army.

Henry E. Berger, of Marlboro, Mass., who went to Siberia in May with Dr. Richard P. Strong's sanitary expedition, succeeded in dodging the typhus bacilli and all other germs he was fighting, but he fell a victim to the love microbes. Dr. and Mrs. Berger arrived here yesterday on the Italian liner Duca degli Abruzzi, all smiles and enthusiasm. Mrs. Berger was formerly Miss Natalie Derocres, a pretty nurse serving with the Serbian army.

Dr. Berger had many interesting experiences during his term of service. He was in a railway wreck near Strumitza, in which thirty persons were killed, and he was entertained on Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht, now on hospital service in the Mediterranean.

All other experiences were cast to the shade, however, when he first got a good look into the dark eyes of the lady who is now his wife. She cannot talk English, and the doctor's Serbian isn't what it might be, but they got along swimmingly in German. They were married three months ago in Nish. After remaining here a few days, they will go to Dr. Berger's home in Massachusetts.

FOILS THEFT AT TRANSOM.

Three alleged burglars were held for trial under bail of $1,000 each by Magistrate Deane in the Washington Heights Police Court today. The prisoners said they were John Young of No. 351 West Twentieth Street, Henry Young of No. 48 Broom Street, and Charles Kipp of No. 182 East One Hundredth Street.

The men were arrested last night after George Reichen, proprietor of a stationery store at No. 312 West One Hundred and Forty-fifth Street, had told Policeman Lally he saw them try to climb over the transom of the store. The policeman captured the trio near the doorway. The police say all three have served terms for burglary.

Stomach Troubles
Due to Acidity

So Says New York Physician. So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, wind, stomach ache and inability to retain food, are in probably nine cases out of ten simply evidence that fermentation is taking place in the food contents of the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acids. Wind distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acids irritate and inflame the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excessive secretion of acid and the fermentation of food. Such fermentation is unnatural, and may involve harmful consequences if not corrected. To stop or prevent fermentation of food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid and render it bland and harmless, a proportional of bicarbonate of soda, which is the best and most effective corrector of acid stomach known, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water immediately after eating, or whenever wind or acidity is felt. This stops the fermentation and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments. Fermentation, wind and acidity are unnecessary, stop or prevent them by the use of proper antacid, such as bicarbonate of soda, which can be obtained from any druggist, and thus enable the stomach to do its work properly without being hindered by gas and excessive acids.—ADVL.
